REMARKS

"Pursuant to Public Act 15-164, the Victim of this incident will be referred to as VICTIM 1."

On 12/16/16 at approximately 2217 hours Middletown Police responded to an undisclosed address in Middletown CT for a report of an active physical domestic disturbance. The caller advised dispatch that a male named Hector Mulero was on the second floor of the residence actively assaulting a female. The caller stated they were aware that Hector was the respondent to a protective order listing the resident of the apartment, "Victim 1," as the protected party.

Middletown Police arrived on scene and attempted, unsuccessfully, to make contact with the residents of this address. After knocking on several doors they made contact with the initial caller who was a neighbor, who stated he heard yelling and screaming coming from the residence. The witness stated he could clearly hear Mulero screaming, "Fucking bitch" and a female voice he recognized as VICTIM 1 screaming, "Give me back my phone." The witness stated he was 100% positive of the voices as he has known the parties for approximately 8 months and lives directly below them. The witness stated he heard numerous bangs inside the residence and believed items were being thrown around the apartment. He stated he clearly heard VICTIM 1 repeatedly scream, "Help me, please help me." The witness stated that the yelling and screaming continued and then he heard what sounded like running around inside the apartment. He stated that moments later the noise stopped and it was completely silent. The witness stated that due to the violent history between Mulero and VICTIM 1 he believed something had happened to VICTIM 1. He stated he did not observe anyone exit the residence and was concerned for her well-being so he called 911. The witness later supplied a sworn written statement detailing the incident.

Middletown Dispatch confirmed an active protective order, issued 11/29/2016, listing Hector Mulero as the respondent and VICTIM 1 as the Protected Party. The order listed VICTIM 1's residence as (undisclosed location) Middletown, CT stated that Mulero was to stay away from the protected parties residence, have no contact with VICTIM 1 in any manner, not assault, threaten, harass, or interfere with her in any manner and surrender all firearms/ammunition.

Based on the exigency, entry was forced into the residence and a barricaded subject situation arose when Mulero barricaded himself in his bedroom and refused to surrender to Police.

As Officers Tiano and Magnano were making their way up the stairs, Off. Magnano heard a clicking sound. Off. Magnano stated that he was not positive what the sound was, but his initial thought was that it sounded like a magazine being inserted into a firearm. The Officers backed down the stairs while continuing to give Hector verbal commands.

An Officer who was speaking to Hector's neighbor was able to find out that Hector has possession of a firearm and he has displayed it in the past. The neighbor described it as a handgun.

Off. Ortiz made contact with Mulero through cell phone and began speaking with him. Mulero repeatedly told Off. Ortiz that he would not exit his room and if the Police made entry he would shoot himself. This conversation continued off and on for approximately 1.5 hours. Throughout the conversation Mulero stated, "She's not here, tell them (Police) to leave."

During breaks in the telephone conversation, Mulero made numerous statements, through the barricaded door, that he "had a gun" and if Officers made entry into his room he would shoot himself.

After approximately 1.5 hours, in which Mulero ignored numerous verbal commands to end the stand off situation, Mulero finally came out of his second floor bedroom and was detained by Police.

After he was detained several Officers conducted a protective sweep of the second floor and attic of the residence in an effort to locate VICTIM 1 or any other injured persons. Upon entering into Mulero's bedroom, which was the southern most room on the second floor, Off. N. Puorro observed a plastic case of ammunition on the floor next to the television stand. This plastic case originally was fitted to contain twenty five (25) rounds however now only contained five (5) live rounds of small caliber handgun ammunition. There were also several other loose rounds of the same ammunition scattered on the floor near the bed. It should be noted that it was confirmed that Mulero is a convicted felon.

The ammunition was left in the bedroom and the sweep of the residence was completed. VICTIM 1 was not located inside nor were any other individuals. Officers secured the residence and exited pending a search warrant.

Hector Mulero was escorted to a marked Middletown Police vehicle. Det. Peck explained to Mulero that due to the nature of the call in conjunction with statements he had made during the incident it was the belief of Officers on scene that there may well be a firearm hidden inside the residence. Mulero was asked if he would be willing to consent to a search of the residence and he refused. He was advised that a search warrant would be applied for. Mulero continued to affirm that no firearms would be located inside his home. Mulero stated numerous times that he did not know where the ammunition came from. He had no explanation for why it was it was in his bedroom. He stated he had been incarcerated and just recently released.

At the conclusion of this investigation, Mulero was charged with the offenses of C.G.S. 53a-223 Criminal Violation of a Protective Order, C.G.S. 53a-167a Interfering With Police, C.G.S. 53a-181 Breach of Peace and C.G.S. 53a-217c Criminal Possession of Bullets. He was issued a $250,000 surety bond and a court date of 12/19/16 at Middletown Superior Court G.A. 9 at 0900 hrs.

A State Police Record Check (S) revealed that Hector Mulero is a convicted felon with previous convictions for Robbery 1st, Robbery 2nd, Assault 3rd, Probation Violation (multiple convictions), Forgery 2nd, Criminal Mischief 1st (multiple convictions), Criminal Mischeif 2nd, Larceny 6th, Operating Under the Influence, Reckless Driving, Failure to Appear 1st, and Use of MV without Permission.

REMARKS

On 12/17/16 at approximately 01:23 hours I, Officer L. Woolard was dispatched to an address in Middletown for a domestic complaint. Dispatch Services advised a tenant in the same apartment building could hear what appeared to be a physical altercation taking place and a female screaming for help. Sgt. Scirpo, and Ofc. Lemieux were the assisting Officers.

Slim Adafia and Victim 1 have been in a dating relationship for nine months. Adafia accused Victim 1 of cheating on him. Adafia pushed Victim 1 to the floor, straddled her waist and pinned her arms to the floor.

Adafia maintained that position while he pulled Victim 1's hair out and struck her in the head and face several times with his hands. Adafia would not allow Victim 1 to get up even as she struggled to and screamed for help.

Slim Adafia was placed under arrest for violating C.G.S 53a-96: Unlawful Restraint in the second degree, 53a-61: Assault in the third degree, and 53a-182 Disorderly Conduct. Adafia was transported to Headquarters for processing. Adafia was held on a $150,000.00 surety bond and given a court date of 12/19/16 at GA-9.

REMARKS

On 12/17/16 at 11:00 hours, I, Officer Ortiz responded to a residential home in Middletown to investigate an active domestic disturbance. It was reported that a female is breaking items in the apartment with a hammer.

V1 and Shalemar T. Freeman were recently in a dating relationship. They have a child in common. Freeman arrived to pick some of her personal belongings. When she entered the home, she saw another female (victim 3) in the apartment. V1 said that Freeman got mad after he told her "it's over" between them two. Freeman grabbed a hammer and began to completely smash both of V1 flat screen television, microwave, stove and a kitchen window. Total loss of approximately $2000. V1 had a scratch under his right eye cause by Freeman.

Freeman at one point, grabbed V3 hair and began pulling on it. V3 hid in the bathroom after breaking loose from Freeman until police arrived. V3 complained of minor head pain. She was rubbing the top of her head as I was interviewing her.

Freeman was taken into custody and transported to police headquarters for processing. Freeman was charged with criminal mischief 1st degree, 53a-115, (2) counts assault 3rd, 53a-61, and disorderly conduct, 53a-182.

Freeman was released on $5000 non-surety bond. She was assigned a court date of 12/19/16 to appear at GA9 at 0900 hours. Prior to being released, Freeman was issued condition of release pursuant to CGS 54-63c. She was advised not to make contact with V1 any manner until after her court appearance.

Photos of the damaged household furniture are attached to this report.

Victim 1 arrived to pick some of her personal belongings. When she entered the home, she saw that there was another female (victim 3) in the apartment. V2 got mad after he told her "it's over".
